

EXECUTIVE LEADERSHIP PROGRAMME IN MONITORING AND EVALUATION (M&E) FOR PUBLIC AND PRIVATE SECTORS

(May 30 – June 10, 2022)

“Just from the introduction, I believe that the training is going to be helpful and I expect that when I go back, I will be able to better support my division.”

*Ms. Madleen Madina Frazer
Research and Delivery Division,
Ministry of Finance, Sierra Leone*

RESEARCH METHODOLOGY AND REPORT WRITING SHORT COURSE

(June 13 – June 24, 2022)

“This course was very engaging and in-depth. I value my growth in the understanding of data analysis and research methodology. The lecturers demonstrated their expertise and knowledge in the course sessions they were in charge of.”

*Torbay Malik,
SOS College*

“My period of study at ISSER has enriched my career. The Research Methodology and Report Writing Course has been beneficial to my scope of practice which is clinical trials. I learned a lot from the group work which also contributed to building a strong team spirit in me.”

*Nora Obodai,
Food and Drugs Authority (FDA)*

“The training was very timely as it covered main areas of importance to my work. Coming to Ghana together with my colleagues, I was convinced that I would have nothing but the best and now I’m confident of doing research and delivering on what is expected of me. I look forward to collaborating with others on writing research papers and journals”.

*Ishmael Sandy
Freetown, Sierra Leone*

DATA MANAGEMENT AND ANALYSIS SHORT COURSE (Mon, June 27 – Fri, July 8, 2022)
	“Studying this course, Data Management and Analysis has been more of a boon than a bane for me. I have been able to broaden my horizon of knowledge about how to analyse and interpret data. I am glad to have attended this training and would love to partake in it another time, as well as recommend individuals and organisations to do the same.” Jabez Nii Kpakpa Sika – Addo, Cocoa Marketing Company
	“This program was meaningful to me and I have learned a lot, which has improved my research and analytical skills. The food was amazing, especially the local food. The environment was wonderful. I really had a great time. Thanks so much.” Abdulai M. Fofana, Ministry of Finance, Sierra Leone
	“All facilitators demonstrated mastery in the various topics they taught. I also liked the fact that facilitators were patient with participants all through the course and assisted participants with all practical aspects.” Ebenezer Adams, University of Education, Winneba (UEW)
PROJECT CYCLE MANAGEMENT SHORT COURSE (July 11 – July 22, 2022)
	“The Project Cycle Management course was well coordinated. The course content and delivery were excellent, being facilitated by well-experienced academics and industry practitioners.” Clement Kelvin Gyime, Ghana Shippers Authority

“The course content was very rich and the facilitators were very accommodating, inspiring, and encouraged participants. We had very well-organised, well-presented, educative, and knowledge-broadening study materials.”

*Moses Gbayeh,
Ministry of Finance, Sierra Leone*

“The training on Project Cycle Management has been very insightful and has built up my knowledge in project management; from project inception through to project conclusion. The practical field trip was great and encouraging. I loved the experience. I will come for more of such trainings.”

*Alice Zu,
Ministry of Information*

RESEARCH METHODOLOGY AND REPORT WRITING SHORT COURSE FOR GHANA COCOA BOARD STAFF (August 8 – August 19, 2022)

“This short course has enlightened me on the subject of Research Methodology and Report Writing. The rich, in-depth knowledge and experience of our lecturers cannot be over-emphasised. It was a wonderful experience with them. I am especially enthused with how simply quantitative analysis was broken down. I can say confidently that my contribution to the COCOBOD Research Department will be significantly improved.

Renata Susanna Gentilezza-Fiator

“As a corporate person, there were so many things in my line of work I was naïve about, but with this short course at ISSER, I believe I am more enlightened and will help me perform my work even better.”

George Akoto

“This short course is like a capsule of all that is necessary for excellent research and report writing. You can initiate and conduct research and present excellent reports only by attending this short course.”

Wahab Abdul Suleman

“With ISSER, you are assured that your level of ignorance will be reduced when you take a short course.”

Dawud Kodua Aning
